New Design!

Did you see the new design? (Squeals of excitement!)

So Melody has been playing around on Canva website, and came up with the two logo images. They looked so good, that she could not hold back, and play with her website colour scheme!

And admittedly, she could not resist the new colour scheme for her newsletters!

New Logo No.1

Oh My Gosh!

So Melody has a Graphic Designer friend. They went to University together, been good friends as her beta reader. Then saw her website. "You got to change it!" she pleaded. Horrified that her friend insisted on colour changes and what she's looks for in her line of work. Melody logged on to Canva website, and got playful.

Oooh! I Love It!

So simple to using the website, and realising how many times social media platforms demands Profile Pic and Cover Pic! Gah! Melody needs a second design! Keeping in theme with the first, and popping a cute book inside, it worked!
